SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH
GUIANA.

APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

THIS 24TH DAY OF JUNE, 1913.

RAMKELAWAN

versus

HUMPHRYS.

The following judgment was read:—

BERKELEY, actg. C.J.: This appeal is from the decision of the Stipendiary Magistrate of the Berbice Judicial District who on a claim by the respondent for non-delivery of a certain bull gave judgment for the respondent with costs.

The respondent does not appear.

The real ground of appeal is that the Magistrate was wrong in holding that delivery was not complete.

In my opinion the Magistrate was correct in the view he took on the evidence adduced in the case.

The appeal must be dismissed.

TREASURY.

Georgetown, Demerara,
17th March, 1913.

Sir,—I have the honour to report that I have examined the Books and Accounts of the Trustees and Administrators of the Trotman Trust Fund for the year ended 31st December, 1912, and found the same correct.

2. The Interest on the Investments has been collected and brought to account.

3. The Treasury, Savings Banks and British Guiana Bank Balances have been verified by me. The Securities held by the Receiver General have also been verified with the exception of the Certificate for a small amount of British Guiana Mutual Scrip for Three Dollars, which, as reported last year, cannot be traced.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

HERBERT BURROWES.

The Chairman,
The Committee, Trotman Trust Fund.

OFFICIAL RECEIVER'S OFFICE.

Georgetown, Demerara,
14th May, 1913.

Sir,—We have the honour to furnish you with the information asked for in your letter No. 79/1912, of the 19th of April, 1913, with reference to the Trotman Fund.

1. The revenue paid by the Committee of the Fund, who are charged with the investment of the funds of the Trust (section 2, Ord. 5 of 1887), to the Administrators, who are charged with the distribution of the income, was in the year 1912, $2,371.64. Deducting from this $142.30, the cost of administration left $2,229.34 available for distribution amongst the beneficiaries.

2. Under the will of the founder of the Trust, two-thirds of the income is to be applied to the relief of destitute and decayed planters, without distinction of race or creed, and the other one-third, to the relief of destitute widows and orphans of deceased planters.

3. The Administrators have found that the most convenient form of distributing the income is by granting permanent pensions to a certain number of persons.

4. The pensioners now on the books are thirteen planters who receive $9.50 a month each, and twelve widows of deceased planters who receive $5 a month each.

5. Attached is a statement showing the names of the present pensioners, their ages, places of birth, as well as the date of the grant of the pension.

6. Two male pensioners died in 1912, and these vacancies were filled by the appointment of Robert Gowan Stewart and E. L. Harel. No new pensions were granted to females, the last vacancy having occurred as far back as the 1st of September, 1905.

7. The oldest male pensioner has been in receipt of his pension for 12 years, and the oldest female for 27 years.

8. Of the male pensioners, eight were born in British Guiana, two in Scotland, one in Barbados and one in St. Vincent.

9. The average age of the male pensioners is 68.15 years.

10. There are at present on the books ten male applicants awaiting vacancies. There are also nineteen female applicants.

11. The pensions given cannot be said to be extravagant, but the amount at the disposal of the Administrators is so small that applicants have to wait years before they can be admitted. This is especially so amongst the female applicants; the death-rate amongst the male pensioners and waiting applicants being far in excess of the rate amongst the females.

We have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servants,

W. A. PARKER.

versus

DEMERARA TURF CLUB.

The following judgment was read:—

HILL, J. (Acting): This is an action by plaintiff claiming $480, the stakes in a race ran at Bel Air Park at the September meeting in 1912, with costs.

The race in question was the Turf Club Stakes, distance 1½ miles, fixed to be run on 19th September as the second race on the programme. The evidence shows that the four horses entered, of which the plaintiff's filly Ethel-a-Do was one, were duly weighed out and proceeded to the starting post:—they were started, and on completion of a mile—that is, when they had returned and were passing the starting post, they were recalled by the starter and re-started. The result was that Ethel-a-Do passed the winning post first. She weighed in, and having passed the Clerk of the Scales her number was hoisted as winner of the race. Two of the owners of two other horses in the race, Messrs. Flood and Cipriani—the latter representing Mr. Borde, the owner of "West Point," lodged an objection which the stewards upheld, ordering the race to be run over on Saturday 21st September. This was done, "Ethel-a-Do" not running and "West Point" won.

The first point to be considered is whether the stewards had authority to order the race to be run over.

Rule 2 of the Rules and Regulations of the Demerara Turf Club, Ltd., is as follows. "The Stewards of a meeting shall have full power to 'make (and if necessary to vary) all such arrangements for the conduct of the meeting as they think fit, and, under special circumstances, to put off any races from day to day, and Rule 6 reads, 'The Stewards shall have power to determine all questions arising in reference to racing at the meeting, subject to the appeal under Rule 79, and should no decision have been arrived at by the Stewards, within seven days of an objection being lodged, the Clerk of the Course shall then report the case to the Directors who may, at their discretion, decide the matter.'"

Rule 6 must be read with Rule 79, and does not apply in my opinion to the circumstances of this particular case. Rule 79 refers to "objections" and must be read in conjunction with Rule 81 et sequentibus.

I think it is clear that under Rule 2 the words "any races" must mean "any of the races" and not "the meeting" or those words would have been used. It was therefore within the power of the Stewards to postpone any race, under special circumstances, if nothing prior had occurred to prevent the exercise of this power.

The grounds of the protest lodged by Messrs. Flood and Cipriani were, that the starter had no right to stop the horses and re-start them the gate in the first instance having worked satisfactorily. By consent, the entry in the Record Book kept under Rule 23 has been taken to show what the objection was, as the original protest has been lost, and the entry therein is to the above effect. This Rule (23) is as follows: "A Record Book shall be kept and all 'races run shall be entered therein by the Clerk of the Course.' The entry referred to as recording the terms of the protest is contained in a minute signed by the Clerk of the Course, and any other entry beyond that, which, by consent, is admitted, and beyond the requirement of the Rule, is not admissible in evidence, and the Court can take no notice of it.

The next point to be considered therefore, is, was the Official Starter within his rights in re-calling the horses and re-starting them.

His powers are regulated by Rule 16 (2) in this connection, which reads: "Should the Starter consider that through any faulty action of the starting-gate, a fair start has not been effected, he shall declare it 'no start,' and order the jockeys to return to the post. The starter's decision on 'the point shall be final.'"

Prima facie, therefore, the starter in ordering the re-call of the jockeys to the post, did so on account of some faulty action of the starting gate, and that such was the case has not been disproved to my satisfaction. Neither starter nor assistant starter has been called to give evidence and without such evidence it is impossible to say that the starter exceeded his authority. Jockey Landon who rode

"Ethel-a-Do" says that the tapes did not in any way stick to his knowledge and that there was nothing faulty about the action of the machine on the first occasion, and in answer to the Commissioner who took his de bene esse examination, he saw that "there was nothing wrong with the first so far as he could see" and that "it was a good start so far as he could see" and there was nothing wrong with the "machine to his knowledge." The other jockey, Hill, says: "I thought the start a genuine one 'because the tape went up,' and Messrs. Hutson and Andrew, two of the Stewards, who watched the start from the Stewards Box considered the start a good one. The Stewards Box is a very considerable distance from the half mile post, and further, when Mr. Hutson states he considered the start a good one he qualifies this when he adds that the decision of the Stewards to run the race over on the Saturday was, to use his own words, 'based on the owners' consent to my mind' and again, 'I think the Stewards suggested the race should be run over 'and the owners fell in with it.' The question for the Stewards was, had the Starter exceeded the authority conferred upon him by Rule 16 (2), or not. That was the allegation in Messrs. Flood and Cipriani's protest. If he had, the Stewards had power to order the race to be run over, as Mr. Andrew says they did order, but if he had not exceeded his authority in re-calling the jockeys, his decision was final. Mr. Hutson's opinion, therefore, as set out above, weakens his conclusion that there was a good start, and to that extent detracts from the weight which must be attached to his evidence.

The Rule (16 (2)), is clear on the point, and, in my opinion, the evidence is not sufficiently strong to show that the starter exceeded his power in re-calling the jockeys and ordering a fresh start.

According to the Rule his decision is final.

I may say further, that had the entry in the Record Book of the Clerk of the Course, been admissible, it would not have carried the matter further as it does not support the contention that the starter's opinion that it was not a fair start, was not based on his starting-gate being "faulty." The entry is "The horses were all stopped in this race 'after having run a mile on the ground that 'although he had pulled the starting-gate, he did 'not consider it a fair start.' Presumably this was the starter's explanation, and there is nothing in it to show that his opinion there was not a fair start was not based on the faulty action of the starting gate. As I have said he was not called as a witness. The Stewards' action, therefore, in ordering the race to be re-run was ultra vires, and the second start on the 19th September was good. That start resulted in "Ethel-a-Do" winning, and the plaintiff is entitled to the amount claimed with costs, for which judgment is given.

THIS 28TH DAY OF JUNE, 1913.

ALTAFFHUSAIN & CO.

versus

RAGMATEA, Executrix of Estate BULDEO, Deceased.

The following judgment was read:—

HILL, actg. J.: Plaintiff claims on specially indorsed writ for $114.15, for goods sold, supplied and delivered. Leave to defend was given, on the affidavit of defence filed, and the defendant counter-claimed for $185.85 balance due under a mortgage of $500 passed by the deceased man on 4th February, 1913, in favour of plaintiff. That balance was arrived at after admitting in the account, as correct, the sum of $114.15 sued for by the plaintiff.

After examination of the documentary evidence and the Books of Account, I am of opinion that the plaintiff is entitled to succeed, although the further delivery of goods to Ragmatea, after the death of Buldeo, and after the sum under the mortgage had been paid in full, seems to cast some doubt on the plaintiffs' case.

On the other hand, it must be taken into consideration that the goods so supplied were for the funeral dinner in connection with the deceased's obsequies; and further, Ragmatea has shown ignorance of the transactions of Buldeo—vide the transaction of 16th January, 1913—a payment of $200 of which she knew nothing, and also her reference to the second $100 paid while in reality it was $50.

Counsel for plaintiff contended defendant was estopped from going behind the mortgage and that the only method of so doing was to have it set aside on the ground of fraud, and no doubt ordinarily this is so, but I do not think in this case there is any attempt to set it aside. Its validity is not questioned, the only suggestion being that, under it, payment on the full amount had not been made, and it is clear from an inspection of the accounts of Buldeo and Gopee (another mortgagee) that at the time of the passing of the mortgages by these men payment of the sums covered by the mortgages had not been made in full. I think there can be no doubt that an action will lie against a creditor who has taken a property under pretext of paying the debtor money (in security of which the mortgage is given) and has not in fact paid such money. But as I have said I find that the sum of $500 has been paid although some of it, it is true, not until after the passing of the mortgage.

Judgment for plaintiff on claim and counter-claim with costs.

APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

THIS 18TH DAY OF JUNE, 1913.

versus

FRANKLIN.

The following decision was read:—

HILL, Acting J.: This is an appeal from a decision by a Magistrate convicting appellant on a charge brought against him of having in his unlawful possession spirits exceeding in quantity a pint, contrary to law.

Section 14 of Ordinance 15 of 1911 repeals sub-section 2 of section 93 of Ordinance 1 of 1905, and inserts in lieu thereof the following sub-section.

(2) Every person possessing spirits exceeding in quantity a pint shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be in unlawful possession thereof, unless:—

(here follows three conditions under which such unlawful possession can be negatived with the second of which this case is concerned, that is as follows:—)

Unless such spirits have been legally sold, delivered, or disposed of to him under section seventeen of the Wine, etc., Licences Ordinance, 1868 or under sub-section (2) of section thirty-eight of this Ordinance, and if such spirits have been obtained in separate quarts from any retailer at separate times, and not under a permit, the purchaser has obtained a receipt in writing for the purchase money paid for the same, and showing the quantity of spirits for which and the time when it was paid.

On board the sloop, of which the defendant (appellant) was captain the police found rum in various parts of the vessel and Sergt.-Major Franklin swears that in the after part under a shelf and under the flooring of the vessel's stern were found 22 bottles containing rum. (A)—In a canister were found 8 bottles containing rum or 4 pints. (B)—In a packall 4 small bottles of rum and one of whisky were found. (C) And a basket containing one small bottle of rum and a half bottle of whisky were found. (D)—At the stern of the vessel under the flooring were found 14 small bottles of rum. (E)—The heads of these bottles were showing. Defendant denied all knowledge of the rum except (B) and with regard to this exhibit the evidence shows that he said the bottles in canister were his, and he had asked one of his sailors to purchase for him.

P.C. Maloney swears that defendant "said the canister (B) was his. He said the rum in (B) was his. The other bottles he said he believed were the passengers." The defendant gave evidence and admitted that (B) belonged to him, and the rum in it also: that he had asked one of the sailors to buy it. He continues—"I sent for 8 bottles. I got paper for the 8 bottles—only one paper for all eight." It was contended by counsel for appellant that there had never been delivery to the appellant, but I can find no evidence that there had not been delivery, and the fact that he ordered the rum, that it was in his canister, and that he admitted it was his and had received a paper for the 8 bottles is, in my opinion, sufficient to establish possession on his part. The mental element as well as the physical fact was present. That possession becomes unlawful—the quantity being more than one pint—if he does not satisfy the requirements of the law—(Sub-section two, section 93, Ordinance 1 of 1905, as amended by section 14, Ordinance 15 of 1911).

Eleven receipts are in evidence, six of which are for sales of 2 half bottles rum each, on 23rd December, 1912, two for sales of 3 bottles on the same date, and one for a sale of 1 bottle rum on 21st December, 1912, and two for sales of 1 bottle rum each on 23rd December, 1912.

The Magistrate, notwithstanding the defendants evidence as to the one paper for the 8 bottles of rum, which, if correct, could only have been by permit and not a receipt, and would have negatived the suggestion that any of the 11 receipts could refer to that transaction, thought that so far as regards two receipts (G) (as they purported to come from a Retail Spirit Shop of similar name to the labels on two bottles (part of "B") they might be allowed, and so allowed them, but this left still 6 bottles unaccounted for. These two receipts are termed by the Magistrate "proper" receipts as they contain the "time," that is, the hour of the sale as well as the date and year, and it is contended by appellants counsel that a receipt showing the date and year is sufficient and that the hour is unnecessary in such a receipt.

On this point section 17, Ordinance 8 of 1868, is instructive as it forbids a retailer to sell more than one quart "at any one time," and again section 39 (2), Ordinance 1 of 1905, speaks of no permission for removal of spirits being granted for the removal of less than 5 gallons "at any one time," or of a greater quantity than 45 gallons in "any one year."

I can come to no other conclusion than that time in the section must mean "hour" as well as date and year—and am unable to construe "time" as meaning "day" only. See also Interpretation Ordinance as to "time." With the exception of exhibit G referred to and one other exhibit "F" I can find no connection on the record of the other receipts, with the proceedings.

So far therefore as regards "B"—the 8 bottles of rum—the appellant has not discharged the undoubted onus cast upon him—possession having been proved—to discharge his liability—certainly as regards 6 bottles—and the Magistrate was right in convicting him. With regard to "D" and "C" the Magistrate accepts the explanation that they were passenger effects and not in the possession of the appellant—but convicts him in regard to the rum contained in exhibits "A" and "E." The reasons are that, as Captain, Benjamin (appellant) was in possession of the rum and was present when it was found and no receipts were shown for these bottles of rum.

The Solicitor General in his argument advanced the proposition that, because by section 109, Ordinance 1 of 1905, the master of a vessel who is found to have on board his vessel any spirits which are found to have been shipped without a permit or certificate or which do not correspond with the particulars set forth in a permit or certificate is, liable to a penalty, ipso facto he must be considered to be in possession of all such spirits, and consequently that the Captain of the sloop was in possession of all the spirits found on board, and for which no receipts are produced.

I am unable to acquiesce in this. Section 109 deals with a condition of affairs, which may arise in connection with spirits "shipped," i.e., spirits which are being exported, and cannot be intended to meet such circumstances as appear in the present case; which circumstances bring the possession of the spirits in question "for the purposes of this section" (14 of Ord. 15 of 1911) within the category of "unlawful" possession, except negatived by any of the three exceptions.

The sloop had passengers—seven, the defendant said and a crew of two as well as the captain (appellant) and it was shown that the last named was away from the vessel for some time during the day. In these circumstances I do not think that possession by him has been proved as regards the spirits contained in exhibits A and E, such possession might equally have been that of either of the sailors, or of the passengers, and the fact that appellant was captain of the sloop, and present when the spirit was found is not sufficient to enable the Magistrate's finding in this connection to be affirmed.

As regards the spirits in Exhibit B, there was ample justification for the conviction, which is affirmed, but without costs, as the appellant has been partly successful. The decision is varied as regards the infliction of the fine of $6.00 or 21 days hard labour which is struck out.

इयतिहार मजलिस किसान का ॥

जार्जटोन डेमरैला तः २१ मः जेठ सः १९१३ ॥

निचे लिखा खबर ईलमी और किसानी उफतर से जिस टौर से कीरे नया धान कि खराब करने से रोक हो सकते हैं । और इस वास्ते बख्शार कागज में छापा है कि सब लोगों को मालूम हो जावे ॥

ब उकम,

E. S. CHRISTIANI,
मुनशी मजलिस किसान का ॥

कीरों के रोक नया धान बीगारने से ॥

सब धान रोपनेवालों को चिता देता है कि यह हिकमत से कीरों के रोक नया धान के बिगारने से अच्छी तरह और मन लगाए करे तो बरूर हो सकता है ॥

यह बात बज्जत ज़रूर है कि जैसे ज़मीन से हरा बीहन नया धान के निकले खबरदारी से निगह करे कीरों के आने के जैसे देखे कि कीरों पर है तो बगदोबस्त करे उनके मुआ देने को । अगर दावों देवेगा तो कीरों जलदी से बिहन खा जावेंगे ॥ ये कीरे बज्जत खराब करते हैं जब बिहन दो तीन हफ्ता के होते हैं तो बिहतर है कि बिहन कि जगह पानी से दूबा दे क्योंकि इस टौर से कीरों बज्जत जलदी मर जाते हैं और ऐसाही करने चाही जब २ वक्त परे ॥ जब खेत साफ करे बिहन कि वास्ते तो चाही कि दाम खूब जंचा बनावे जिस में बिहन के जगह पानी से बिलकुल दूबा सके ऐसे करने से सब कीरे पानी में से उतीरावे और सब कीरे जमा कर सकते और नाश कर सकते ॥

जब बिहन कि जगह पानी से नहीं दूबा सकते (ऐसा कभी कभी हो सकता है) तब हाथ से कीरों को चून लेना बिहन से और एक टीनीन बिस में पानी और ठोरा परफोन कि टेल होवे डोर दे ॥ यह न बज्जत मिहनत कि काम है क्योंकि वेद छोटे छोटे हैं और ऐसा काम लड़के लुभी से करते हैं ॥

इस वास्ते बिहतर है कि पहले से दाम इस टौर से बिहन कि जगह में बनावे कि धान जो पैदा होवे असते से समात करले ॥ चिरिवों जो कीरे खाते हैं चाही उनके वास्त बैठक बिहन कि जगह में रख दे इस वक्त से चिरिवों बज्जत असर बिहन कि जगह में करेंगे यह बात देखा और कांचा है ॥

जहां बड़त बिहन कि जगह इकीया है खेतवालों को चहीये कि शमोल होकर कीरों को मारदाले। क्योंकि अगर ठोरा आदमी खेतवालों कीरों को मारे और मजराही लोगों गाफिल इस बात में करे और अपने खेत य बिहन कि जगह में रहने दे तो तुरन्त ये कीरे सब और दूसरे बिहन कि जगह में फैल जावेंगे ॥

G. E. BODKIN,

रोपने के ईलमी साहिब.

इशतिहार मजलिस किसान का ॥

जार्जटोन डेमरेला तः २१ मः जेठ सः १९१३ ॥

निचे लिखा खबर ईलमी और किसानी डफतर से जिस टौर से बोरे नया धान कि खराब करने से रोक हो सकते हैं । और इस वास्ते खबर कागज में छापा है कि सब लोगों को मालूम हो जावे ॥

ब डकम,

E. S. CHRISTIANI,

मुनशी मजलिस किसान का ॥

कीरों के रोक नया धान बीगारने से ॥

सब धान रोपनेवालों को चिन्ता देता है कि यह हिकमत से कीरों के रोक नया धान के बीगारने से अच्छी तरह और मन लगाए करे तो बहर हो सकता है ॥

यह बात बज्जत जरूर है कि जैसे जमीन से हरा बीहन नया धान के निकले खबरदारी से निगह करे कीरों के आने के जैसे देखे कि कीरों पर हैं तो बनदोबस्त करे उनके मुआ देने को । अगर दावों देवेगा तो बोरो जलदी से बिहन खा आवेंगे ॥ ये कीरे बज्जत खराब करते हैं जब बिहन दो तीन हफ्ता के होते हैं तो बिहतर है कि बिहन कि जगह पानी से दूबा दे क्योंकि इस टौर से कीरों बज्जत जलदी मर जाते हैं और ऐसाही करने चाही जब ९ वक्त परे ॥ जब खेत साफ करे बिहन कि वास्ते तो चाही कि दाम खूब जंचा बनावे जिस में बिहन के जगह पानी से बिलकुल दूबा सके ऐसे करने से सब कीरे पानी में से उतीरावे और सब कीरे जमा कर सकते और नाश कर सकते ॥

जब बिहन कि जगह पानी से नहीं दूबा सकते (ऐसा कभी कभी हो सकता है) तब हाथ से कीरों को चून लेना बिहन से और एक टीनीन जिस में पानी और ठोरा परफोन कि टेल होवे छोर दे ॥ यह न बज्जत मिहनत कि काम है क्योंकि बेद छोटे छोटे हैं और ऐसा काम लड़के सुधी से करते हैं ॥

इस वास्ते बिहतर है कि पहले से दाम इस टौर से बिहन कि जगह में बनावे कि धान जो पैदा होवे असते से समात करले ॥ चिरिवों जो कीरे खाते हैं चाही उनके वास्ते बैठक बिहन कि जगह में रख दे इस रजा से चिरिवों बज्जत असर बिहन कि जगह में करेंगे यह बात देखा और मांशा है ॥

जहां बड़त बिहन कि जगह दकीया है खेतवालों को चहीये कि शमोस होकर कीरों को मारदाले। क्योंकि अगर ठोरा आदमी खेतवालों कीरों को मारे और मजराही लोगों गाफिल इस बात में करे और अपने खेत य बिहन कि जगह में रहने दे तो तुरन्त ये कीरे सब और दूसरे बिहन कि जगह में फैल जावेंगे ॥

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication, for general information, of the following report by the Imperial Institute on Para Rubber from British Guiana.

By Command,

GEO. D. BAYLEY,
Acting Government Secretary.

IMPERIAL INSTITUTE
OF THE
UNITED KINGDOM, THE COLONIES AND INDIA.

SOUTH KENSINGTON, LONDON, S.W.,

23rd May, 1913.

Sir,—I have the honour to enclose a report on two samples of Para rubber which were forwarded to the Imperial Institute by the Director of the Science and Agriculture Department at Georgetown with letter dated the 4th February, 1913.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

His Excellency the Governor,
British Guiana.

WYNDHAM P. DUNSTAN.

IMPERIAL INSTITUTE

RESULTS OF THE EXAMINATION OF PARA RUBBER FROM BRITISH GUIANA.

Imperial Institute No.	...	48,012-1	Date 23rd May, 1913.
Reference	...	Letter dated 4th February, 1913, from the Director of the Science and Agriculture Department, Georgetown.
Number or mark, and weight of sample	...	Para rubber biscuits from 4½-5 year old trees at Issorora, North West District. Weight 1 lb. 3 oz.
Description	...	Small thin biscuits, light brown to reddish-brown in colour, clean and in good condition. The rubber was slightly weak, but, considering the age of the trees from which it was obtained, its physical properties must be regarded as quite satisfactory.
Results of examination	...	Loss on washing (moisture and impurities) 1·0 per cent. Composition of dry washed rubber
		Caoutchouc	per cent. 95·3
		Resin	2·0
		Proteid	2·5
		Ash	0·2
Commercial valuation	...	About 3s. per lb. in London, with fair average quality, plantation sheets and biscuits at 3s. 1½d. to 3s. 2½d. per lb., and fine hard Para at 3s. 6½d. per lb. (8th May, 1913.)
Remarks...	...	This rubber is very satisfactory in chemical composition, containing over 95 per cent. of caoutchouc in the dry material, and in this respect it is quite equal to plantation Para rubber from the East. The strength of the rubber will no doubt improve as the trees become older and the product will then be of excellent quality.
Imperial Institute No.	...	48,012-2	Date 23rd May, 1913.
Reference	...	Letter dated 4th February, 1913, from the Director of the Science and Agriculture Department, Georgetown.
Number or mark, and weight of sample	...	Scrap Para rubber from 4½-5 year old trees at Issorora, North West District. Weight 13 oz.
Description	...	Cakes of scrap rubber varying in colour from light brown to almost black. Like the preceding specimen the rubber was slightly weak.
Results of examination	...	Loss on washing (moisture and impurities) 2·8 per cent. Composition of dry washed rubber
		Caoutchouc	per cent. 93·7
		Resin	2·5
		Proteid	3·2
		Ash	0·6
Commercial valuation	...	About 2s. 6d. per lb. in London, with fair average quality plantation sheets and biscuits at 3s. 1½d. to 3s. 2½d. per lb. and fine hard Para at 3s. 6½ per lb. (8th May, 1913.)
Remarks	...	This scrap rubber is of good quality. It contains a little more resin, proteids and ash than the biscuit rubber and consequently the percentage of caoutchouc is lower.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.LIMITED JURISDICTION.*THIS 28TH DAY OF JUNE, 1913.*FERNANDESversusAMEER.

The following judgment was read:—

H. L. J., Actg. : Plaintiff claims $200 damages, $100 of which is for special, and $116.92 for general damages, for breach of agreement in connection with the sale of a quantity of rice. No general damages were shown or could, as a matter of fact, be claimed in an action of this nature.

The defendant has not called witnesses nor has he given any evidence, his counsel relying on the law governing such transactions, and on the facts as elicited in the examination of plaintiff and his witnesses.

Plaintiff bought from defendant 78 bags of rice, according to sample, the rice being open to his view. He paid the purchase price at $4.08 per bag, and the rice was delivered to him. The allegation in para. 4 of the claim that defendant knew at the time of sale that plaintiff purchased the rice for the purpose of re-selling has not been established. Plaintiff having received the seventy-eight bags, shipped seventy to D'Abreu, who rejected 33 bags as not according to the sample shown him by plaintiff, but kept 37 bags. Plaintiff thereupon called upon defendant to take back the 33 bags and give him good rice. Defendant refused saying the sample alleged to have been taken from the 33 bags—or rather from 10 of these bags—did not represent the rice sold by him. Thereupon plaintiff sold 31 of the bags to Manoel D'Andrade for $62.00. He now claims as special damages, the difference on 33 bags between the price paid by him, and the sale price paid to him, and for the expenses contingent on the purchase and sale of the rice.

I am satisfied that the 33 bags of rice returned to Manoel were the same bags of rice that were sold by defendant to plaintiff, but I am not satisfied that the sample (C) is the sample of the rice sold or of these 33 bags. In view of the evidence of Manoel D'Andrade, a witness for the plaintiff, (who purchased 31 of the rejected bags from plaintiff at $2.00 each, that he re-sold the rice at 20 cents per gallon or $4.00 per bag—the current market rates—and that he would have sold it wholesale, at $4.00 to $4.10 per bag, it is impossible for the Court to believe that the sample in Court (Exhibit C) which is stated by the plaintiff to have been the sample of rice taken from the 10 bags of rice is the real sample, and on view of which sample, Mr. de Freitas, a buyer for Smith Bros., states that such rice would have fetched $1.92 to $2.16 a bag in February last, that it was not fit for human consumption, and it would be impossible to get $4.40 per bag for it. The proof of the pudding is in the eating, and D'Andrade's evidence clearly points to the sample in court (Exhibit C.) not being the real sample taken from the rejected bags, but that the rice must have been of an infinitely better quality.

If the rice supplied did not come up to the quality bargained for, plaintiff could have refused to receive any, or have accepted at the bargained price, subject to deduction to be subsequently obtained on the ground of an inferior article having been supplied. He, however, disposes of seventy of the bags of rice, and claims damages for the thirty-three of these seventy bags which have been rejected by D'Abreu, and on this point it is significant that, of the seventy-eight bags purchased, and eight of which were kept by himself, none of those eight bags are said to have been of an inferior quality. It would only seem reasonable to have expected to find that there was inferiority in quality also among them.

The special damages claimed are based on the difference in value between the price paid and the price he sold at. This is not correct, and the damages ought to be the difference between the cost of the rice at the price bargained for and paid, and the price of the rice actually obtained, which was, as said by D'Andrade, the current market price. The price of the rice—say for 33 bags—was $134.64 while D'Andrade swears he retailed at 20c. per gallon, or $145.20, and at wholesale, he swears, the price would be about the same as cost. He is plaintiff's witness, and apparently quite bona fide in his evidence.

The whole matter probably lies in the fact that D'Abreu required from Fernandes a standard of excellence which Fernandes, on his part, in the first instance, had not bargained for with Ameers, and he (Fernandes) on rejection of the rice by D'Abreu, seeks to recover damages from defendant for something for which he is not liable.

No damages, however, are shown for which he can be held liable, and there will be judgment for the defendant with costs.

THIS 30TH DAY OF JUNE, 1913.N. CANNONversusJ. G. D'AGUIAR & F. G. D'AGUIAR.

The following judgment was read:—

EARNshaw, J.: In this case the plaintiff claims from the defendants the sum of $374.50 being $337.50 money due and payable for services performed by the plaintiff as auctioneer and agent at the request of the defendants in respect to the sale of lot 37, Main street, Georgetown, and $37. money paid by the plaintiff for the defendants at the request of the defendants in connection with the said sale.

Inter alia the defendants contended that they were under no liability to pay as though the contract of sale was entered into and completed as a contract yet in the event no sale took place under the said contract.

It is quite clear on the evidence that the plaintiff was instructed by the defendants to sell the lot in question, and that in pursuance of those instructions he entered into a binding contract of sale with one L. A. Stephenson, the price fixed being $11,250. Afterwards through no fault of the plaintiff the proposed sale was not completed, and the property was sold by the defendants to another purchaser.

The law on the question is well set forth in the case Lumsden v. Clark and others, Official Reports, South African Republic, Vol. II, p. 207, where it was held that as the agent had done everything that in terms of his mandate could be expected of him, and that since it was not due to his action, but to the fault and conduct of another that the sale was not put through, the agent was entitled to the commission claimed by him.

Applying that decision to the facts of this case I give judgment for the plaintiff for the amount claimed $374.50 with costs.

The evidence shows that the plaintiff received a sum of $250 as either deposit or part payment from L. A. Stephenson when the contract was made.

As that is the subject of another action in which L. A. Stephenson is plaintiff, and the present plaintiff the defendant, the final destination of that $250 is not dealt with now, and the right of the parties including the present defendants as regards the same are not affected by this judgment.

NOTES ON THE ANCIENT SITES AND HISTORICAL MONUMENTS NOW EXISTING IN THE COLONY OF BRITISH GUIANA. COMPILED BY ALLEYNE LEECHMAN, F.L.S., F.R.C.S., SCIENCE LECTURER, DEPARTMENT OF SCIENCE AND AGRICULTURE.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

In submitting the following brief notes on the ancient sites and historical monuments now existing in the Colony of British Guiana, the compiler makes no claim to originality. He has had at his disposal work done by Messrs. Michael McTurk, C.M.G., J. Rodway, F.L.S., H. A. Frere (Superintendent of the Georgetown Prison), and M. P. Hastings (of the Department of Lands and Mines), and full acknowledgment is made of these sources of information. Every advantage, too, has been taken of Rodway's invaluable "History of British Guiana." The thanks of the compiler are due to Mr. Frank Fowler, Commissioner of Lands and Mines, for permission to copy plans of buildings and forts in the records of the Department, and to Mr. C. Wilgress Anderson, I.S.O., F.G.S., F.R.C.S., for carrying out that work.

ALLEYNE LEECHMAN.

INTRODUCTION.

ANCIENT SITES.

British Guiana, which comprises the Counties of Essequibo, Demerara, and Berbice, and occupies an area in the north-east of South America equal to that of Great Britain, was first occupied by the Dutch, who established trading posts in the Pomeroon and on the Abary Creek about the year 1580. Early in the seventeenth century Kyk-over-al, a small island near the junction of the Mazaruni, the Cuyuni, and the Essequibo Rivers, was occupied and a fort erected; and this, or its annexe, the "Huis Naby," at Cartabo Point, for a considerable period remained the seat of Government. In 1739 the Executive was moved to Fort Island, near the mouth of the Essequibo River. With the rise of Demerara the importance of Fort Island diminished, and the place was finally abandoned about 1796.

Of the Dutch occupation of Essequibo there remain only traces at Kyk-over-al, but at Fort Island a good deal of the old Fort is still standing, while the Lutheran Church—once the Court of Policy Hall—is in fair condition. At Manara-bisci Creek, on the Cuyuni, may be seen the ruins of indigo tanks, and at "Paracara," Mazaruni River, the grave of Samuel Beekman, who was Commandeur from 1691 to 1707.

Berbice was established as a trading post by Abraham van Peere in 1627, and was quite independent of the "Two Rivers" (Essequibo and Demerara) until 1831. The only relic of the early days is Fort Nassau, on the right bank of the Berbice River, some 75 miles from its mouth, and even that has almost entirely disappeared.

HISTORICAL MONUMENTS.

Inscriptions exist on several graves in the church at Fort Island, and near Fort Nassau. Among the latter is one to the three-year-old son of Governor Van Batenburg, who presided over the destinies of Berbice from 1789 to 1806. Van Batenburg himself died in Barbados. The grave of Samuel Beekman, Commandeur of Essequibo from 1691 to 1707, exists at Barra-carra (formerly Plu. Fortuin), but the inscribed slab over the tomb has been taken to Georgetown, where it may be seen in the Colonial Museum. A selection from the inscriptions on tombs and monuments in Georgetown and some of the neighbouring plantations is attached, with notes taken from Mr. Rodway's "History of British Guiana."

KYK-OVER-AL.

Towards the end of the sixteenth century small Dutch vessels began to trade in the West Indies for salt, an article of prime necessity for the fisheries. This trade became of such importance in the first quarter of the following century that the English coupled the Dutch and Spaniards together under the title of "Lords of the West Indies." A hundred vessels were employed annually in bringing salt from different places, one of which was Araya, in Venezuela. Some of the traders sailed along the coast of Guiana and opened up a traffic with the natives. Axes and knives, beads, trinkets, and gaudy ornaments were exchanged for cotton, hammocks, pita hemp, annatto, letter-wood, gum animi, balsam copaiba, and tobacco. As the natives lived from hand to mouth, the traders were often disappointed in getting what they wanted, or were subject to great delay while negotiable articles were being collected. To prevent this, depôts were established, and a few men left in charge of a little store until the return of the vessel. Two such depôts were established in Guiana about the year 1580, the one in the Pomeroon, and the other at a small Indian village called Nibie, on the Abary Creek. This commenced the Dutch settlement of this Colony.*

In the early part of the seventeenth century the post was removed from the Pomeroon to a little island near the junction of the three rivers—Essequibo, Mazaruni, and Cuyuni. Here a more substantial post was established, in a building said to have been erected there by Spaniards about 1591. A fort was built and armed with a few small guns and named, in honour of an influential Dutch gentleman, "Fort ter Hoogen," but this appellation soon gave place to the descriptive name of Kyk-over-al (see over all). The island seems to have passed through a precarious existence until 1657, when a Commandeur was appointed—probably Groeneweg.

Kyk-over-al was captured by the English in 1666, but re-captured from them and regarrisoned by the Dutch very shortly after. It seems to have been again abandoned by them in 1688. More prosperous times appear to have existed in 1679, when a good deal of trade was done with the Indians by the then Commandeur Hendrik Roll. Owing to a dispute between this Commandeur and the Commandeur in Berbice the limit of their trade on either side was fixed at the Abary Creek, which is still the boundary between the Counties of Demerara and Berbice.

Hendrik Roll, who seems to have been a successful Commandeur, died at Kyk-over-al in 1676. After a short interval Abraham Beekman was appointed Commandeur in 1678. He was a most energetic man, but did not get on with the Directors of the West India Company. He was dismissed from his post as Commandeur in 1690, but remained in Essequibo.

Samuel Beekman became Commandeur in 1690. He died on 10th December, 1707, and was buried at Plantation Fortuin, now known as "Baracara," where the remains of his grave may still be seen. A small slab that was on it recording his death is now in the Colonial Museum, Georgetown.

Kyk-over-al capitulated to the French in 1708, but did not remain in their possession for any length of time. In 1710 one Van der Heyden was appointed Commandeur at Kyk-over-al.

In 1716, owing to the crowded state of the island, a house, called the "Huis Naby" (House Near-by) was built at Cartabo Point (the junction of the Mazaruni and Cuyuni Rivers) for the residence of the Commandeur and other officials. Van der Heyden was discharged from his post in July, 1719, and was succeeded by de Heere. De Heere died in March, 1729, and was succeeded by Hermanus Gelskerke, who had been Secretary to Van der Heyden, and on whose representations Van der Heyden had been discharged.

Gelskerke seems to have remained at Huis Naby, and to have retained soldiers at Kyk-over-al.

The first meeting of the Council of Justice took place on 5th October, 1739, at the new fort on Fort Island. The Huis Naby, at Cartabo, was abandoned and with it may be said to have ended the occupation of Kyk-over-al.

In 1748 most of the buildings on Kyk-over-al were demolished, and, according to Hartsinck, some of the bricks were used for erecting a sugar mill on Plantation Duynenburg.

* Rodway's "History of British Guiana."

During the boundary dispute between British Guiana and Venezuela in 1897, some doubt was expressed as to the original builders of Kyk-over-al. Excavation was, therefore, made to the foundations of the remaining ruins, and bricks from the lowest courses together with the keystone of the archway over the door were removed and sent to England for examination by experts, who decided they were of Dutch origin.

In June, 1910, by the orders of the then Governor, His Excellency Sir Frederic Hodgson, K.C.M.G., the island was thoroughly cleared of timber and undergrowth. This operation exposed the ramparts and parapets of stone with their embrasures, and enabled the brick pavement, with which the interior of the fort is lined, to be traced for some distance. Some interesting relics of the Dutch occupation were unearthed, including several cannon balls, a few "dismantling shots," a key, a private seal, a considerable number of clay tobacco pipes, a few bits of china-ware and glass bottles, uniform buttons, and odds and ends, and a large pen.

A recent photograph of the celebrated archway is now available, but unfortunately no view of the south river-wall (which is from ten to twenty feet in height) has yet been taken.

"FORT ZEELANDIA," ON FORT ISLAND.

Abraham Beekman, about the year 1679, was the first to see the need for a fort on Flag (Fort) Island (a few miles from the mouth of the Essequibo River), and it appears he actually commenced to build one of wood, for in September, 1687, he announced that the new fort was nearly finished, and it only remained for him to build a house for the Commandeur and a guard-house.

A. Beekman was dismissed by the Directors on the 30th October, 1690. He was succeeded by Samuel Beekman, under whom the first Council or Court of Policy was constituted (1691). He died on December 10th, 1707, and was buried at Plantation Fortuin.

In 1710, under Commandeur Van der Heyden, the inhabitants petitioned the Directors of the Company to erect a new fort on Flag Island at the spot where Abraham Beekman had formerly commenced his fortification. The request caused many disputes between the Commandeur and the free planters, and nothing definite was done.

Hermanus Gelskerke was appointed Commandeur on the 11th October, 1729, and went so far in the erection of a new fort that in 1733 he reported it to the Directors as being in a state to defend itself, although not finished.

In August, 1738, Storm van Gravesande, who had been appointed Secretary to Commandeur Gelskerke, reported that the wooden fort on great Flag (Fort) Island could never be of any use as it then was, for when new palisades were put up on one side the others were falling to pieces. A new fort, he said, must be built of brick. Nevertheless, on the 5th of October, 1739, the first meeting of the Council of Justice was held in the fort and the Huis Naby was definitely abandoned as a seat of government. Gelskerke himself had been living on Fort Island since the January, when his own house had been finished; and there he remained to superintend the building of other houses for the Secretary and the Predicant, barracks for the soldiers, a workshop, and the Company's warehouse.

A second application to the Directors by Gravesande seems to have had some effect, for we now read of his being busy with the brick fort which he offers to finish in two years, making the bricks himself and getting lime from Barbados. It received the name of Fort Zeelandia, and when it was finished (in 1744) was considered a strong fortress for a small colony like Essequibo. Hartsinck describes it as having been square, provided with 18 or 19 guns, and with four ramparts, inside which were three covered masonry radoubts having flat roofs with embrasures, serving for barracks for soldiers, and a powder magazine. There was also, near the store, a horn-work lined with palisades, and armed with twelve guns.

Van Gravesande died on the 4th of August, 1745, at the age of 75, and was buried at the Fort Island Church, but no signs of his grave exist to-day.

On the 6th of March, 1781, Fort Zeelandia was captured by Captain Day, of Admiral Rodney's force, without opposition, only to be recaptured by the French in 1782. In 1784 the Dutch again resumed possession.

In 1796 we read that the establishment at Fort Island had almost gone to ruin. Plans have been made to show the present condition of the fort, and photographs have recently been taken which give an excellent idea of its appearance.

CHURCH ON FORT ISLAND.

Previous to the erection of the fort on Fort (or as it was then called "Flag") Island there seems to have been no church there. The Predicant, as the Dutch clergymen were called, lived with his wife at Kyk-over-al. The first Predicant was Rudolph Heynens (1688). Stipends were small, and there were often long periods between the death or absence of one Predicant and the appointment of another. From 1724 to 1730 there had been no Predicant in Essequibo. After Rudolph Heynens, there had been several Predicants more or less unsuited for their office.

In 1730, shortly after Hermanus Gelskerke became Commandeur, one Hubertus van Gravenbroek became Predicant. He appears to have been a man in all respects fitted for his office, and to have been much respected. He officiated at several places on the river, and in his time there is first mention of a place of worship at Fort Island. Gravenbroek was Predicant for thirty-one years. He was a married man and had one daughter who married and whose descendants are still in the colony.

Under Abraham Beekman (1687) new buildings were put up at Fort Island. The fort itself was nearly finished: presumably one of the new buildings was the church. The new fort was not occupied. A second attempt at the building of the fort (or perhaps its completion) was made in 1728, but came to nothing.

It has not been determined whether the existent church on Fort Island is the same as that in which Gravenbroek officiated—the first mention of a church on the island being in his time—or whether that was a building of a more temporary nature while the present substantial building of brick was erected afterwards, when a general movement was made to the lower parts of the river from Kyk-over-al.

Laurens Storm van Gravesande died in 1775 and was buried in Fort Island Church, but no trace of his grave is existent. Up to quite a recent date the floor of the church was covered with Dutch tiles: these have been taken up and disposed of.

It is quite probable that there is some record of the spot in the church where Gravesande was buried, but his grave (like most of those in Essequibo) may have been dug up and rifled by persons seeking for treasure: but there is no instance of anything being found except a brass button.

A recent photograph gives good notion of the design of the church, which is in fair condition and is still in use.

FORT NASSAU.

Fort Nassau was erected shortly after the establishment of Berbice as a trading post by A. van Peere in 1627, but very little information as to its history immediately subsequent to that date is available. It is quoted in the inventory of "The Association of the Owners of the Colony of Berbice" in 1720 as being "out of repair."

Fort Nassau was situated some 75 miles up the Berbice river and was built of wood, surrounded by palisades, and armed with small cannon. Inside were barracks for sixty soldiers and some out-buildings for servants and petty officials. The principal building in the fort consisted of two storeys, the lower of which was used as a council chamber and church hall, and the upper as the residence of the Governor, the Captain of the troops, his secretary and two lieutenants. On the arrival of Governor Waterham in 1735 the fort was pronounced to be in bad repair and wanting renewal. There were riots and murders among the soldiers at Fort Nassau in 1751, 1756, and 1759.

During the Berbice slave insurrection in 1763, Fort Nassau afforded refuge to a number of whites. But it was quickly abandoned owing to the rotten state of its defences, and blown up, the refugees retreating down the river to Fort St. Andries. When the insurrection was quelled, in 1764, some attempt at restoration was made—enough at least to enable the soldiers to live there and defend the stores while the troops of the Association kept guard at the posts. At the same time it was suggested that a proper fort be built at the junction of the Canje and the Berbice rivers and this, it was hoped, would form the nucleus of a new town.

During the Government (1768-1773) of Henrick de la Sablonière, Fort Nassau was rebuilt, after a fashion.

At the present time no trace of the fort exists except a few loose bricks lying here and there about the site on which the building once stood. Some ten or twelve years ago a portion of one of the walls was still visible, but this has now quite disappeared. A careful search has failed to bring to light any old guns or articles of interest.

About a mile below the site of Fort Nassau on the same bank of the river there are remains of a brick kiln and of a brick tile road which is stated to have extended in Dutch times up to the Kimbra Creek. There is a record of a brickfield being established near Fort Nassau in 1722.

Near to where the Fort stood there is a large number of graves, but as most of the tombs have subsidied below the surface it is impossible to ascertain the exact number. It was probably about thirty. Two of the inscriptions on the tombs are decipherable and have been copied for record, together with a tracing of a sketch of one of them.

A little higher up the river, about a mile above the mouth of the Terani Creek, there is another batch of graves about twenty-seven in number. Three of the inscriptions on these can be read, and copies, with tracing of a sketch, are attached.

INDIGO TANKS AT PLN. DUYNENBURG, ESSEQUEBO RIVER.

The first mention of indigo appears to have been during the Commandeurship of Laurens de Here, who succeeded Van der Heyden in 1721. Presumably the first attempts at its cultivation must have been in the vicinity of Kyk-over-al, though no definite information is available. It may have been at Manari-bisci Creek (Pln. Duynenburg) on the Cuyuni, where the remains of indigo tanks are still to be seen. The cultivation certainly did not flourish; it was disliked by the slaves and not well understood by the planters. It was finally abandoned in 1747.

The remains of the indigo tanks at Duynenburg are situated on the left bank of the Cuyuni, below the first fall (Acayo), at the mouth of the Manari-bisci Creek and on its right bank. There is one remarkable peculiarity about these remains: the bricks with which the tanks were constructed do not appear to be of Dutch manufacture—they are certainly not Colonial. It may be that when Gravesande opened up the colony to settlers the bricks may have been brought from Barbados, or they may have been obtained from English vessels that occasionally entered the river about that period. Bricks of local manufacture are soft and too absorbent for indigo tanks.

There are extensive remains of brick work at Agterkerke on the west side of Hog Island. This was one of the Dutch West India Company's plantations and may have grown both sugar and indigo. These bricks are principally of local manufacture.

GEORGETOWN. ST. GEORGE'S CATHEDRAL.

Sacred to the memory of Captain William Peake
The brave and highly respected Commander of His Majesty's brig Peacock; whose death was glorious, as his life was honourable.
Engaged in equal combat with the American Ship-of-War Hornet a cannon-shot in mercy terminated his existence almost at the same moment that his gallant vessel, consigned to the deep, gave a watery Sepulchre to the remains of her lamented chief.
To Commemorate
this glorious but fatal engagement, which took place on these shores,
on the 24th day of February 1813, and to perpetuate the name of a distinguished officer
His Excellency Genl. Carmichael, acting Governor, Sympathising with the generous feeling of the inhabitants of this United Colony, in the universal expression of Sincere regret was pleased to grant, in their behalf, this monument to his fame.

On 23rd February, 1813, H.M.S. brig Peacock, in command of Captain William Peake, met the American privateer Hornet, while cruising along the East Coast; and after a gallant struggle off Courabanna Point the English vessel sank with nearly all her crew. Captain Peake was killed during the fight, and when the news reached the colony, the story cast a gloom over the whole of it. A funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. W. G. Straghan; and the Governor writing to that clergyman to excuse his non-attendance said the amiable character of Captain Peake had caused his loss to be felt as a universal affliction to the community.

Erected by Public Subscription.

Governor Carmichael Smyth died at Camp House on the 4th March, 1838. Rarely before had such an arbitrary Governor been seen in British Guiana and never perhaps one so generally loved. Even his greatest opponents gave him credit for the best intentions, while the Apprentices, the freed slaves, would do almost anything at his command. He treated the negroes as children, kindly, but at the same time with the greatest firmness. A more elaborate inscription may be seen on the monument in the Hall of Colony House, Berbice. Upon him fell the responsibility of government during the trying time of transition from slavery to full emancipation.

Sir,—I have the honour to report for the information of His Excellency the Governor that Mr. Percy Kortright, Herbarium Attendant in this Department, left his work complaining of feeling ill on the afternoon of June 23rd, 1913, and has since been missing. I reported this to the Police Department on June 24th and on June 26th his dead body was discovered in the cemetery.

2. It is with great regret that I report the decease of Mr. P. Kortright to you. He was in early life an inmate of the Orphan Asylum. Later he was employed in the Botanic Gardens receiving his training there under the direction of the late Mr. G. S. Jenman, then Government Botanist. Under that gentleman's guidance he obtained a very expert knowledge of the systematic botany of British Guiana. He was also trained in taking the readings of the meteorological instruments, his efficiency in this respect being commented on by me in paragraph 8 of my letter to you of the 26th ultimo.

3. Mr. Kortright practically made the care of the Herbarium and the taking of the meteorological records his life's work. His knowledge of the flora of British Guiana was probably unique, certainly it was so in this colony. He could at practically a moment's notice find any specimen out of the very many thousands under his care, give its history and point out the peculiarities of the specimen and of the plant it represented. The Government Botanist, the Economic Biologist, the Agricultural Superintendent and the Head Gardener as well as myself deplore his untimely loss. To each of us he had given very valuable assistance.

4. I feel that we shall have great difficulty in replacing Mr. Kortright as Attendant at the Herbarium. It is not possible to replace his unique knowledge of the contents of the Herbarium and for this reason his loss will be heavy on us for many years to come.

5. I trust that you will pardon me for writing as I have done in this matter. I feel that the devoted, steadfast, faithful and earnest life's work of this humble East Indian servant of the Government calls for mention in the records not alone of this Department but of the colony.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

J. B. HARRISON,
Director.

The Honourable
The Government Secretary.

RESOLUTION.

The urgent need of enforcing the Sanitary provisions of the Local Government Ordinance No. 13 of 1907 in the several Village and Country Districts of the Colony, and the advisability of the Board taking active and independent action in respect of the same, in addition to, and independent of any action which may be taken by the several Authorities of such Districts, having been brought to the notice of the Board by the Government Medical Officers of Health:

Be it Resolved that this Board under the powers vested in it, under Section 10 of Ordinance No. 13 of 1907, deems it expedient to have and to exercise all the powers of a Local Authority in any or in all Village and Country Districts independent of the Local Authorities of such Districts in respect of all matters dealt with in :—

Sections 169 to 170 in Part III.

" 174 to 274 in Part IV.

" 275 to 287 in Part V.

" The whole of Part VII.

" 339 and 340 in Part VIII.

of the Local Government Ordinance No. 13 of 1907, the amending Ordinance No. 20 of 1911 and all subsequent amendments, and in the Districts By-Laws, 1911, and all subsequent By-Laws.

And be it further resolved that this Resolution shall only apply to such Districts as the Board may from time to time order by Notice published in the Official Gazette and that this Board under Section 320 of the Local Government Ordinance shall duly authorise its Officers, the Government Medical Officer of Health, the Assistant Government Medical Officer of Health, and the Government Sanitary Inspector to appear and prosecute before the Magistrate in respect of any proceedings which it may be necessary to institute in any of the Districts so ordered.

Customs' Notice.

NOTICE TO IMPORTERS OF MANUFACTURED GOODS ENTERED UNDER THE BRITISH PREFERENTIAL TARIFF.

Paragraph 2 of the Regulations governing the entry of Goods under the British Preferential Tariff in this Colony provides that:—"Manufactured articles shall only be admitted at the preferential rates of duty upon proof being submitted that a substantial portion of the labour of the United Kingdom or Canada has entered into the production of such articles to the extent in each article of not less than one-fourth of the value thereof at the time the goods are entered for exportation with the Customs authorities in the country of produce or manufacture."

2. Importers are hereby notified that the above regulation does not apply to articles of foreign origin imported in bulk into the United Kingdom or Canada solely for the purpose of being canned, bottled or otherwise packed there.

3. Packages in which goods are imported are, with few exceptions, admitted free of duty into this Colony, and duty is charged on the value or quantity of the actual goods only, so that the mere packing and bottling of foreign goods in the United Kingdom or Canada, even if the work entailed therein amounts to more than 25 per cent. of the total, free on board, value of such goods, does not qualify them for preferential treatment.

4. For example—Sardines caught in foreign fishing vessels by foreign fishermen and tinned in Great Britain in oil the produce of a foreign country are not entitled to admission at the preferential rate of duty, because a substantial portion of the labour of the United Kingdom has not entered into the production of the articles themselves, but only into the production of their packing material which is duty free.

5. To obtain preferential treatment for manufactured goods it is necessary that the goods themselves should be subjected to some process of manufacture in the United Kingdom or Canada.

Customs' Notice.NOTICE TO IMPORTERS OF MANUFACTURED GOODS ENTERED UNDER THE BRITISH PREFERENTIAL TARIFF.

Paragraph 2 of the Regulations governing the entry of Goods under the British Preferential Tariff in this Colony provides that—"Manufactured articles shall only be admitted at the preferential rates of duty upon proof being submitted that a substantial portion of the labour of the United Kingdom or Canada has entered into the production of such articles to the extent in each article of not less than one-fourth of the value thereof at the time the goods are entered for exportation with the Customs authorities in the country of produce or manufacture."

2. Importers are hereby notified that the above regulation does not apply to articles of foreign origin imported in bulk into the United Kingdom or Canada solely for the purpose of being canned, bottled or otherwise packed there.

3. Packages in which goods are imported are, with few exceptions, admitted free of duty into this Colony, and duty is charged on the value or quantity of the actual goods only, so that the mere packing and bottling of foreign goods in the United Kingdom or Canada, even if the work entailed therein amounts to more than 25 per cent. of the total, free on board, value of such goods, does not qualify them for preferential treatment.

4. For example—Sardines caught in foreign fishing vessels by foreign fishermen and tinned in Great Britain in oil the produce of a foreign country are not entitled to admission at the preferential rate of duty, because a substantial portion of the labour of the United Kingdom has not entered into the production of the articles themselves, but only into the production of their packing material which is duty free.

5. To obtain preferential treatment for manufactured goods it is necessary that the goods themselves should be subjected to some process of manufacture in the United Kingdom or Canada.

The bottle should be immersed in the river, half filled with water and then thoroughly rinsed out, the water being thrown away. The bottle should be filled to within two inches of its neck and the stopper be securely screwed in and tied down. The label should be filled up so as to show the place and time of collection of the sample and time of collection of the sample and securely tied to the neck of the bottle. A number should be marked on the label to correspond with the one on the bottle. The bottles should be securely packed in the case to obviate all chance of breaking, and the case forwarded by an early opportunity to the Government Laboratory through the Commissioner of Lands and Mines."

3. The results of the analyses are given in the appended table. This shows the river waters contain relatively high proportions of organic matter (included in the table under "loss in ignition") and indicates that the colour of the water may be due to compounds of these organic matters with iron in the ferrous state. The content of lime (calcium oxide) in the waters is uniformly low, and in some of the darker coloured ones is very low. Their content of magnesium as relative to calcium is as a rule high, although there are some exceptions to this where the relationship is fairly normal (Barama river, Puruni river, and Mazaruni river) whilst in others (Rupununi river, Demerara river in full water, Mahaica creek) this is quite abnormal the magnesium being higher in quantity than is the calcium. Nitrates are present in all the waters although there are great divergencies in the proportions present—from '05 parts per million of the nitrate ion in the case of the Barama water to 1'92 in that of the Berbice water. The content of other constituents also shows wide variations, for instance—silica from 4'6 parts per million in the Berbice river water to 55'6 in that from Rupununi, the sulphate ion from '23 in the Berbice river water to 1'92 in that of the Mazaruni river, the carbonate ion from 4'50 in the water of the Mahaica creek to 31'29 in that of the Berbice river, chlorine from '57 in the Mazaruni river water to 7'57 in the normal Demerara river water, the ferrous ion from '10 in the nearly colourless Berbice river water to 6'93 in the dark brown water of the Cuyuni river, potassium from a mere trace—'01 parts per million in the waters of the Barama, Cuyuni and Puruni rivers—to 2'97 in that of the Mahaica creek, and sodium from '44 in the Puruni river water to 9'35 in that of the Rupununi river.

The proportion of total nitrogen in the water varies very greatly from '054 parts per million in the sample from the Cuyuni river to 1'906 in that from the Rupununi river, its incidence, as will be seen in the table, as ammonium, as nitrate or in combination in the organic matter present being also subject to marked variations. This may and probably is due in such waters as those from the Rupununi river, Mahaica creek and Abari creek, waters in which ammonium is present in relatively high proportions, to changes which have taken place after the collection of the sample.

The waters from the Rupununi river and Puruni river being contained in the waters of the Essequibo at Waraputa falls and of the Mazaruni at Mapituri falls the mean compositions of the waters of the ten rivers—the Barima, Barama, Waini, Cuyuni, Mazaruni, Potaro, Essequibo, Demerara, Berbice and Courantyne—which drain the interior and more elevated parts of the colony and of the two—the Mahaica and Abari creeks—from the lower swampy coastlands are as follows :—

The waters of the rivers both of the interior and of the coastlands are soft waters coloured and rendered more or less organically impure by the presence in them of relatively high proportions of vegetable derived organic matters in combination with iron. They could be readily purified so as to be colourless as well as potable by various processes of coagulation, sedimentation and filtration.

The differences in composition shown by the two classes of waters are well marked and are exactly those which would be expected from the diversity of their sources.

BRITISH GUIANA.—IN THE SUPREME COURT

Registrar's Office of British Guiana, Georgetown, Demerara, this 24th day of July, 1913.

Acting Registrar.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.

LIMITED JURISDICTION.

THIS 11TH DAY OF JULY, 1913.

HIS MAJESTY'S ATTORNEY GENERAL IN AND FOR THE COLONY OF BRITISH GUIANA, Plaintiff,

versus

MUNGOLSINGH, LUCHMAN, BUDHA, SEW-NATH, SUMPATH, BUDHUNLALL, GOBERDUN, Defendants.

The following judgment was read:—

ERNSHAW, J.: In this case the Colony of British Guiana is suing the defendants in accordance with the Petition of Rights Ordinance, 1904, the real plaintiff being "the Colony" and not the Attorney General.

On the 7th of November, 1910, the Colony became the owner by purchase at execution sale of Plantation Windsor Forest and obtained Letters of Decree thereon on the 17th of February, 1912.

The defendants are the owners by transport of Plantation Nouvelle Flanders.

When the Boerasirie Ordinance of 1889 was passed, it appears that seven plantations, namely, Nouvelle Flanders, L'Union, Haarlem, Rotterdam, Waller's Delight, and Ruimzicht were worked in conjunction with Windsor Forest, and that Ordinance provides that the assessments thereunder shall be made against Windsor Forest as a whole including the other plantations aforementioned. The same provisions occur in the Boerasirie Loan Ordinance of 1902. That provision was no doubt satisfactory as long as all the above plantations were subject to one control, but at some time during recent years these plantations have ceased to be worked together and are no longer owned by the same person and now Plantation Windsor Forest taken by itself is the property of the Colony and Plantation Nouvelle Flanders is the property of the defendants.

With the view of providing for the altered circumstances, Ordinance 11 of 1906 sets forth that it shall be lawful for the Governor-in-Council to order (section 2, (sub-section 2)) that assessments made under the said Ordinance (Ord. 7 of 1889) shall not be made upon each plantation as a whole but shall be made upon any part of a plantation, and may be recovered against such part separately from the rest of the plantation.

No such order as is thereby contemplated has been brought to the notice of the Court as regards Windsor Forest and the other plantations formerly worked therewith; but now by Ordinance 22 of 1911, the provisions of Ordinance 7 of 1889 are further modified, and it is provided that each of the above plantations shall be assessed separately. Windsor Forest therefore no longer includes the other plantations for the purpose of assessments or payments under the Boerasirie Ordinance.

These assessments are of two kinds: (1) sums due to and recoverable by the Boerasirie Commissioners as required by them for the purpose of conserving and distributing the waters of the Boerasirie creek; (2) sums due to and recoverable by the Colony as instalments and interest in connection with the loan by the Colony to the Commissioners. (vide Ord. 15 of 1902.)

The Colony as the proprietor of Windsor Forest has paid both these charges on Windsor Forest as a whole including Nouvelle Flanders since purchasing Windsor Forest until some time in 1911 and now claims contributions from the defendants of what is alleged to be the proportion due for Nouvelle Flanders as "money paid by the plaintiff for the defendants at their request." The amounts claimed are $109.83, proportion of instalments of loans and interest and $125.34 proportion of current assessments. The defendants deny indebtedness. They say that the plaintiff has no cause of action against them, that they never requested the plaintiff or anyone to pay any money on their behalf, and that if the plaintiff paid any money he paid under a mistake of facts.

It is quite clear that the defendants never requested the plaintiff to pay any money on their behalf.

But it may be regarded as settled law that if anyone, by neglecting to pay money which he is by law bound to pay, has cast the duty and obligation upon another and the latter has paid the money, not voluntarily and officiously, but by compulsion of law, the compulsion so brought is equivalent to an express request, and the person who has paid can recover from the other money so paid on his behalf.

The person who pays money on behalf of another must, therefore, before he can succeed in an action of this nature, show that he was either actually compelled by law, or was, at the time when he paid, at the least, legally compellable to pay the money. In this case the plaintiff, i.e., the Colony, was certainly not compelled by law to pay the money. No writ was issued against the plaintiff and no steps were taken to compel the plaintiff to pay.

Of course no writ could have been issued against the plaintiff as the Colony is the plaintiff (Ord. 9 of 1904, sec. 4) and this affects the other alternative, viz., whether the Colony was legally compellable to pay the two sums of money now claimed.

As regards the instalments of loan and interest the answer is clear. There was no actual payment. These instalments and interest were payable, if at all, by the Colony to the Colony. No one can be said to compel himself. There is no need for an Aristotelian dissertation on that statement. There may have been a virtual payment by making the proper entries in the books of account kept by the Colony. The Colony was not however legally compellable to make such a payment whether actual or virtual and the claim under this head falls to the ground.

The other claim is on a different footing. Those assessments are made payable by the Ordinance to the Boerasirie Commissioners and not to the Colony, and it is proved that they were paid by the Colony to the Commissioners. But was the Colony legally compellable to pay those assessments? By "legally" here, I mean "by process of law."

The Boerasirie Commissioners can recover all assessments and sums due by parate execution against the proprietor of a plantation. But would parate execution be available against the Colony as a proprietor before Ordinance 22 of 1911 came into force? It certainly is not available now as that Ordinance provides that parate execution shall not be issued under the Boerasirie Ordinance, 1889, or the Boerasirie Loan Ordinance, 1902, against any Crown land.

I answer the question in the negative. In my opinion, Ordinance 22 of 1911, section 3, does nothing more than declare and make certain what was the law before.

The Petition of Rights Ordinance, 1904, provides in section 7 that no execution shall issue, whenever in any action, a judgment or order shall be given or made against the Government and in section 10 that certain claims of the Colony may be recovered by parate execution. But there is no provision therein that a claim against the Colony shall be recovered by parate execution, and unless the Crown in express words grants such a right to a subject (in this case the Boerasirie Commissioners) as against itself, such a proceeding would in my view amount to an infringement of the dignity or prerogative of the Crown, and therefore be illegal.

It is true that the Colony has become a "proprietor" by purchasing Windsor Forest, but I cannot think that by so doing it divested itself of any prerogative which attaches to the Crown.

I decide therefore that the Boerasirie Commissioners could not have recovered the assessments from the Colony by parate execution.

The only other method of recovery by legal process would be by Petition of Right under the provisions of the Ordinance.

To such proceedings the consent of the Governor is necessary, and as the Governor can withhold his consent the Colony cannot be said to be legally compellable.

The plaintiff's case therefore fails as regards both claims, and I give judgment for the defendants with costs.

It may be well to note that as regards the future the question whether assessments under the Boerasirie Ordinances can be recovered by parate execution against Crown lands has been definitely settled by section 3 of Ordinance 22 of 1911, and that under the same Ordinance each of the afore-mentioned plantations (including Nouvelle Flanders) can be proceeded against separately.

Government Notice.

GOVERNMENT SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Georgetown, Demerara,

342.

29th July, 1913.

THE Bill entitled "An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Companies and Associations," which was considered by the Governor and Court of Policy on the 8th and 14th July, is hereby re-published for general information, as amended by the Court.

By Command,
CLIFTON GRANNUM,
Acting Government Secretary.

THE COMPANIES (CONSOLIDATION) BILL, 1913.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM.

The Company legislation of the Colony consists—

(1.) of three Companies' Clauses Ordinances 1 of 1846, 4 of 1877 and 9 of 1898, respectively;

(2.) of two English Companies (Holding of lands) Ordinances, 7 of 1868 and 12 of 1868;

and (3) of the Companies Ordinance, 1898.

The group of Companies Clauses Ordinances deals with the regulation of the constitution of joint-stock companies for carrying on undertakings of a public nature (e.g., railways) and authorizes the taking of lands for such purposes. It also consolidates certain provisions usually inserted in Ordinances relating to the constitution and management of such companies and provides for the completion of title to lands acquired for such undertakings of a public nature. It embodies in fact the English legislation on this branch of the subject and so far has been found adequate to local requirements. No alteration is proposed at the present time.

Ordinance 7 of 1868 empowers English companies already incorporated at that date or which might subsequently be incorporated under the English Companies Acts 1862 or 1867 to hold land in the colony as if incorporated under the local Companies Ordinance, 1864. Ordinance 12 of 1910 extends this privilege to companies incorporated under the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, or any statutory extension or modification thereof. These Ordinances also serve a specific purpose and it is not proposed to alter them.

The Companies Ordinance, 1898, is the principal statute dealing with this subject in its general aspect at the present time. It repeals an Ordinance of 1864 and is in fact a consolidation with the alterations made necessary by local requirements, of the general English Company legislation up to 1898, viz., of the consolidating Act of 1862, the Companies Acts of 1867 and 1879 and the Directors' Liability Act 1890.

Since the passing of this Ordinance the development of English Company law has been very great owing to the increasing number of public and private companies. The Acts of 1898, 1900, 1907 and 1908, were followed up by the Companies (Consolidation) Act 1908 which represents what is virtually a codification of the English Company Law. It repeals a large number of enactments ranging from 1862 to 1908 which deal expressly with companies and also repeals certain other enactments which related to companies or to the administration on the same lines as the administration of companies of other associations or partnerships. It re-enacts, however, with amendments the net result of all this legislation. As many of its provisions apply to companies formed before it was passed any references in any other Act to the repealed provisions are, unless a contrary intention appears, to be construed as references to the provisions so re-enacted.

Among the provisions of the Act of 1908 which find no parallel in our Ordinance of 1898 may be mentioned those relating to private companies (enabling two or more persons to register themselves as a private company under special conditions), to registration, to the restrictions on the appointment of directors both in companies inviting and in those not inviting a public share subscription, to the fixing of the minimum subscription upon which shares might be allotted for the first time (which does not apply to private companies) and to underwriters' commissions (which must now be authorised by the articles and have the amount and rate per cent. stated whether shares are offered to the public or not.) The sections dealing with auditors are also new.

The advisability of keeping the Company Law of the colony in harmony with the English Law on this subject is obvious. The development of British Guiana is being carried on chiefly by companies either registered in the United Kingdom or financed and managed from that quarter. Our present legislation is specially defective as regards the appointment and responsibility of directors and the question of underwriting commissions and in regard to the absence of any provisions dealing with private companies. Other British Possessions have recently taken steps to make their law uniform with the English Company Law. The present Bill proposes therefore to adopt the English Consolidating Act of 1908 with such amendments as local circumstances require and no further.

A BILL ENTITLED "AN ORDINANCE TO CONSOLIDATE AND AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO COMPANIES AND ASSOCIATIONS."

BE it enacted by the Governor of British Guiana, with the advice and consent of the Court of Policy thereof, as follows :—

Provided that no preference or special privilege attached to or belonging to any class of shares shall be interfered with except by a resolution passed by a majority in number of shareholders of that class holding three-fourths of the share capital of that class and confirmed at a meeting of shareholders of that class in the same manner as a special resolution of the company is required to be confirmed, and every resolution so passed shall bind all shareholders of the class.

(2.) Where an order is made under this section an office copy thereof shall be filed with the registrar within seven days after the making of the order, or within such further time as the court may allow, and the resolution shall not take effect until such a copy has been so filed.

Reduction of Share Capital. (1) Company limited by shares.

Special resolution for reduction of share capital.

45.—(1.) Subject to confirmation by the court, a company limited by shares, if so authorised by its articles, may by special resolution reduce its share capital in any way, and in particular (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power) may—

- (a.) Extinguish or reduce the liability on any of its shares in respect of share capital not paid up; or
- (b.) Either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, cancel any paid-up share capital which is lost or unrepresented by available assets; or
- (c.) Either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, pay off any paid-up share capital which is in excess of the wants of the company, and may, if and so far as is necessary, alter its memorandum by reducing the amount of its share capital and of its shares accordingly.

(2.) A special resolution under this section is in this Ordinance called a resolution for reducing share capital.

46. Where a company has passed and confirmed a resolution for reducing share capital it may apply by petition to the court for an order confirming the reduction.

Application to court for confirming order.

47. On and from the confirmation by a company of a resolution for reducing share capital, or where the reduction does not involve either the diminution of any liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid-up share capital, then on and from the presentation of the petition for confirming the reduction, the company shall add to its name, until such date as the court may fix, the words "and reduced," as the last words in its name, and those words shall, until that date, be deemed to be part of the name of the company ;

Addition to name of company of "and reduced."

Provided that, where the reduction does not involve either the diminution of any liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid-up share capital, the court may, if it thinks expedient, dispense altogether with the addition of the words "and reduced."

48.—(1.) Where the proposed reduction of share capital involves either diminution of liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid-up share capital, and in any other case if the court so directs, every creditor of the company who at the date fixed by the court is entitled to any debt or claim which, if that date were the commencement of the winding up of the company, would be admissible in proof against the company, shall be entitled to object to the reduction.

Objections by creditors, and settlement of list of objecting creditors.

(2.) The court shall settle a list of creditors so entitled to object, and for that purpose shall ascertain, as far as possible without requiring an application from any creditor, the names of those creditors and the nature and amount of their debts or claims, and may publish notices fixing a day or days within which creditors not entered on the list are to claim to be so entered or are to be excluded from the right of objecting to the reduction.

(3.) Where a creditor entered on the list whose debt or claim is not discharged or determined does not consent to the reduction the court may, if it thinks fit, dispense with the consent of that creditor, on the company securing payment of his debt or claim by appropriating, as the court may direct, the following amount ; (that is to say.)—

- (i.) If the company admits the full amount of his debt or claim, or, though not admitting it, is willing to provide for it, then the full amount of the debt or claim ;
- (ii.) If the company does not admit or is not willing to provide for the full amount of the debt or claim, or if the amount is contingent or not ascertained, then an amount fixed by the court after the like inquiry and adjudication as if the company were being wound up by the court.

Order confirming reduction.

49. The court, if satisfied, with respect to every creditor of the company who under this Ordinance is entitled to object to the reduction, that either his consent to the reduction has been obtained or his debt or claim has been discharged or has determined, or has been secured, may make an order confirming the reduction on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit.

Registration of order and minute of reduction.

50.—(1.) The registrar on production to him of an order of the court confirming the reduction of the share capital of a company, and the delivery to him of a copy of the order and of a minute (approved by the court), showing with respect to the share capital of the company, as altered by the order, the amount of the share capital, the number of shares into which it is to be divided, and the amount of each share, and the amount (if any) at the date of the registration deemed to be paid up on each share, shall register the order and minute.

(2.) On the registration, and not before, the resolution for reducing share capital as confirmed by the order so registered shall take effect.

(3.) Notice of the registration shall be published in such manner as the court may direct.

(4.) The registrar shall certify under his hand the registration of the order and minute, and his certificate shall be conclusive evidence that all the requirements of this Ordinance with respect to reduction of share capital have been complied with, and that the share capital of the company is such as is stated in the minute.

Minute to form part of memorandum.

51.—(1.) The minute when registered shall be deemed to be substituted for the corresponding part of the memorandum of the company, and shall be valid and alterable as it had originally contained therein; and must be embodied in every copy of the memorandum issued after its registration.

(2.) If a company makes default in complying with the requirements of this section it shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five dollars for each copy in respect of which default is made, and every director and manager of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits the default shall be liable to the like penalty.

Liability of members in respect of reduced shares

52. A member of the company, past or present, shall not be liable in respect of any share to any call or contribution exceeding in amount the difference (if any) between the amount paid, or (as the case may be) the reduced amount, if any, which is to be deemed to have been paid, on the share and the amount of the share as fixed by the minute :

Provided that if any creditor, entitled in respect of any debt or claim to object to the reduction of share capital, is, by reason of his ignorance of the proceedings for reduction, or of their nature and effect with respect to his claim, not entered on the list of creditors, and, after the reduction, the company is unable, within the meaning of the provisions of this Ordinance with respect to winding up by the court, to pay the amount of his debt or claim, then—

- (i.) every person who was a member of the company at the date of the registration of the order for reduction and minute, shall be liable to contribute for the payment of that debt or claim an amount not exceeding the amount which he would have been liable to contribute if the company had commenced to be wound up on the day before the registration ; and
- (ii.) if the company is wound up, the court, on the application of any such creditor, and proof of his ignorance as aforesaid may, if it thinks fit, settle accordingly a list of persons so liable to contribute, and make and enforce calls and orders on the contributories settled on the list as if they were ordinary contributories in a winding up.

Nothing in this section shall affect the rights of the contributories among themselves.

53. If any director, manager, or officer of the company wilfully conceals the name of any creditor entitled to object to the reduction, or wilfully misrepresents the nature or amount of the debt or claim of any creditor, or if any director or manager of the company aids or abets in or is privy to any such concealment or misrepresentation as aforesaid, every such director, manager, or officer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Penalty on concealment of name of creditor.

54. In any case of reduction of share capital, the court may require the company to publish as the court directs the reasons for reduction, or such other information in regard thereto as the court may think expedient with a view to give proper information to the public, and, if the court thinks fit, the causes which led to the reduction.

(3) Any contract made by a company before the date at which it is entitled to commence business shall be provisional only, and shall not be binding on the company until that date, and on that date it shall become binding.

(2) Where such a contract as above mentioned is not reduced to writing, the company shall within one month after the allotment file with the registrar the prescribed particulars of the contract stamped with the same stamp duty as would have been payable if the contract had been reduced to writing, and those particulars shall be deemed to be an instrument within the meaning of any Ordinance dealing with stamp duties for the time being in force.

(3) If default is made in complying with the requirements of this section, every director, manager, secretary, or other officer of the company, who is knowingly a party to the default, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred and forty dollars for every day during which the default continues :

Provided that, in case of default in filing with the Registrar within one month after the allotment any document required to be filed by this section, the company, or any person liable for the default, may apply to the court for relief, and the court, if satisfied that the omission to file the document was accidental or due to inadvertence or that it is just and equitable to grant relief, may Effect of order for winding-up company.

249. If any unregistered company has no power to sue and be sued in a common name, and if for any reason it appears expedient, the Court may, by the order made for winding-up such company or by any subsequent order, direct that all such property, moveable and immoveable, including all interests, claims, and rights into and out of property, moveable and immoveable, and including things in action, as may belong to or be vested in the company, or to or in any person or persons on trust for or on behalf of the company, or any part of such property, is to vest in the liquidator or liquidators by his or their official name or names, and thereupon the same or such part thereof as may be specified in the order shall vest accordingly, and the liquidator or liquidators may, in his or their official name or names, or in such name or names and after giving such indemnity as the Court directs, bring or defend any actions, suits, or other legal proceedings relating to any property vested in him or them, or any actions, suits, or other legal proceedings necessary to be brought or defended for the purpose of effectually winding-up the company and recovering the property thereof.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

TABLE A.

REGULATIONS FOR MANAGEMENT OF A COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES.

Preliminary.

1. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, expressions defined in the Companies (Consolidation) Ordinance, 1913, or any statutory modification thereof in force at the date at which these regulations become binding on the company, shall have the meanings so defined; and words importing the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa, and words importing the masculine gender shall include females, and words importing persons shall include bodies corporate.

Business.

2. The director shall have regard to the restrictions on the commencement of business imposed by section eighty-six of the Companies (Consolidation) Ordinance, 1913, if, and so far as, those restrictions are binding upon the company.

Shares.

3. Subject to the provisions, if any, in that behalf of the memorandum of association of the company, and without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of existing shares in the company, any share in the company may be issued with such preferred, deferred, or other special rights, or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of share capital, or otherwise, as the company may from time to time by special resolution determine.

4. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class. To every such separate general meeting the provisions of these regulations relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class.

5. No share shall be offered to the public for subscription except upon the terms that the amount payable on application shall be at least five per cent. of the nominal amount of the share; and the directors shall, as regards any allotment of shares, duly comply with such of the provisions of sections eighty-four to eighty-seven (both inclusive) of the Companies (Consolidation) Ordinance, as may be applicable thereto.

6. Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall, without payment, be entitled to a certificate under the common seal of the company specifying the share or shares held by him and the amount paid up thereon, provided that in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.

7. If a share certificate is defaced, lost, or destroyed, it may be renewed on payment of such fee, if any, not exceeding twenty-four cents, and on such terms, if any, as to evidence and indemnity as the directors think fit.

8. No part of the funds of the company shall be employed in the purchase of, or in loans upon the security of, the company's shares.

Lien.

9. The company shall have a lien on every share (not being a fully-paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the company shall also have a lien on all shares (other than fully-paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person, for all moneys presently payable by him or his estate to the company; but the directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this clause. The company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.

10. The company may sell, in such manner as the directors think fit, any shares on which the company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists, is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled by reason of his death or bankruptcy to the share.

11. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares prior to the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

Calls on Shares.

12. The directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares, provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal amount of the share, or be payable at less than one month from the last call; and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times of payment) pay to the company at the time or times so specified the amount called on his shares.

13. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

14. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest upon the sum at the rate of five per cent. per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment, but the directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of that interest wholly or in part.

15. The provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share, or by way of premium, as if the same had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

16. The directors may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders in the amount of calls to be paid and in the times of payment.

17. The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate (not exceeding, without the sanction of the company in general meeting, six per cent.) as may be agreed upon between the member paying the sum in advance and the directors.

Transfer and Transmission of Shares.

18. The instrument of transfer of any share in the company shall be executed both by the transferor and transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.

19. Shares in the company shall be transferred in the following form, or in any usual or common form which the directors shall approve:

I, A.B. of _____ in consideration of the sum of $ _____ paid to me by C.D. of _____ (hereinafter called "the said transferee") do hereby transfer to the said transferee the share [or shares] numbered _____ in the undertaking called the _____ Company Limited, to hold unto the said transferee, his executors, administrators, and assigns, subject to the several conditions on which I held the same at the time of the execution thereof: And I the said transferee do hereby agree to take the said share [or shares] subject to the conditions aforesaid. As witness our hands the day of _____ Witness to the signatures of, &c.

20. The directors may decline to register any transfer of shares, not being fully-paid shares, to a person of whom they do not approve, and may also decline to register any transfer of shares on which the company has a lien. The directors may also suspend the registration of transfers during the fourteen days immediately preceding the ordinary general meeting in each year. The directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfers unless—

- (a) a fee not exceeding sixty cents is paid to the company in respect thereof, and
- (b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.

21. The executors or administrators of a deceased sole holder of a share shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to the share. In the case of a share registered in the names of two or more holders, the survivors or survivor, or the executors or administrators of the deceased survivor, shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to the share.

22. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member shall, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the directors, have the right, either to be registered as a member in respect of the share or, instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made; but the directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy.

23. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company.

Forfeiture of Shares.

24. If a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of such call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.

25. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

26. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect.

27. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit.

28. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the company receive payment in full of the nominal amount of the shares.

29. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a director of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and that declaration, and the receipt of the company for the consideration, if any, given for the share on the sale or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to the share, and the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.

30. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share, or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Conversion of Shares into Stock.

31. The directors may, with the sanction of the company previously given in general meeting, convert any paid-up shares into stock, and may with the like sanction reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.

32. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, as, and subject to which, the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit; but the directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum, but the minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

33. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges, and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company, and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company) shall be conferred by any such stock on any part of stock as would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

34. Such of the Regulations of the company (other than those relating to share warrants) as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the word "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stock-holder."

Share Warrants.

35. The company may issue share warrants, and accordingly the directors may in their discretion, with respect to any share which is fully paid up, on application in writing signed by the person registered as holder of the share, and authenticated by such evidence, if any, as the directors may from time to time require as to the identity of the person signing the request, and on receiving the certificate, if any, of the share, and the amount of the stamp duty on the warrant and such fee as the directors may from time to time require, issue under the company's seal a warrant, duly stamped, stating that the bearer of the warrant is entitled to the shares therein specified, and may provide by coupons, or otherwise for the payment of dividends, or other moneys, on the shares included in the warrant.

36. A share warrant shall entitle the bearer to the shares included in it, and the shares shall be transferred by the delivery of the share warrant, and the provisions of the regulations of the company with respect to transfer and transmission of shares shall not apply thereto.

37. The bearer of a share warrant shall, on surrender of the warrant to the company for cancellation, and on payment of such sum as the directors may from time to time prescribe, be entitled to have his name entered as a member in the register of members in respect of the share included in the warrant.

38. The bearer of a share warrant may at any time deposit the warrant at the office of the company, and so long as the warrant remains so deposited the depositor shall have the same right of signing a requisition for calling a meeting of the company, and of attending and voting and exercising the other privileges of a member at any meeting held after the expiration of two clear days from the time of deposit, as if his name were inserted in the register of members as the holder of the shares included in the deposited warrant. Not more than one person shall be recognised as depositor of the share warrant. The company shall, on two days' written notice, return the deposited share warrant to the depositor.

39. Subject as herein otherwise expressly provided no person shall, as bearer of a share warrant, sign a requisition for calling a meeting of the company, or attend, or vote, or exercise any other privilege of a member at a meeting of the company, or be entitled to receive any notices from the company; but the bearer of a share warrant shall be entitled in all other respects to the same privileges and advantages as if he were named in the register of members as the holder of the shares included in the warrant, and he shall be a member of the company.

40. The directors may from time to time make rules as to the terms on which (if they shall think fit) a new share warrant or coupon may be issued by way of renewal in case of defacement, loss, or destruction.

Alteration of Capital.

41. The directors may, with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution of the company, increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.

42. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the resolution sanctioning the increase of share capital, all new shares shall before issue, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the company of general meetings in proportion, as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and, after the expiration of that time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the directors may dispose of the same in such manner as they think most beneficial to the company. The directors may likewise so dispose of any new shares which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares) cannot, in the opinion of the directors, be conveniently offered under this article.

43. The new shares shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture, and otherwise as the shares in the original share capital.

44. The company may, by special resolution --

- (a.) Consolidate and divide its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
- (b.) By sub-division of its existing shares, or any of them, divide the whole or any part, of its share capital into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum of association, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of paragraph (d) of sub-section (1) of section forty-one of the Companies (Consolidation) Ordinance, 1913;
- (c.) Cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person;
- (d.) Reduce its share capital in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorised, and consent required, by law.

General Meetings.

45. The statutory general meeting of the company shall be held within the period required by section sixty-four of the Companies (Consolidation) Ordinance, 1913.

46. A general meeting shall be held once in every year at such time (not being more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding general meeting) and place as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting, or, in default, at such time in the month following that in which the anniversary of the company's incorporation occurs, and at such place, as the directors shall appoint. In default of a general meeting being so held, a general meeting shall be held in the month next following, and may be convened by any two members in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are to be convened by the directors.

47. The above-mentioned general meetings shall be called ordinary meetings; all other general meetings shall be called extraordinary.

48. The directors may, wherever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting, and extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or, in default, may be convened by such requisitionists as provided by section sixty-five of the Companies (Consolidation) Ordinance, 1913. If at any time there are not within the colony sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any director or any two members of the company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the directors.

Proceedings at General Meetings.

49. Seven days' notice at the least (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served, but inclusive of the day for which notice is given) specifying the place, the day, and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned, or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting, to such persons as are, under the regulations of the company, entitled to receive such notices from the company; but the non-receipt of the notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at any general meeting.

50. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary meeting, and all that is transacted at an ordinary meeting, with the exception of sanctioning a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance-sheets, and the ordinary report of the directors and auditors, the election of directors and other officers in the place of those retiring by rotation, and fixing the remuneration of the auditors.

51. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided, three members personally present shall be a quorum.

52. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and, if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the members present shall be a quorum.

53. The chairman, if any, of the board of directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the company.

54. If there is no such chairman, or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act as chairman, the members present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman.

55. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for ten days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

(2.) The Official Receiver shall summon the meeting by giving not less than seven days' notice of the time and place thereof in the Gazette and in a local paper. Notice of such meeting shall also be sent by post to every person appearing by the company's books to be a creditor of the company and to every member of the company.

(3.) The Official Receiver shall also, as soon as practicable, send to each creditor mentioned in the Company's statement of affairs, and to each person appearing from the company's books, or otherwise, to be a contributory of the company, a summary of the company's statement of affairs, including the causes of its failure, and any observations thereon which the Official Receiver may think fit to make; but the proceedings at any such meeting shall not be invalidated by reason of any summary or notice required by these rules not having been sent or received before the meeting.

(4.) The meeting shall be held at such place as is in the opinion of the Official Receiver most convenient for the majority of the creditors and contributories.

(5.) The Official Receiver or some person nominated by him, shall be the chairman of the meetings.

(6.) A person shall not be entitled to vote as a creditor unless he has duly proved a debt to be due to him from the company, and the proof has been duly lodged before the time appointed for the meeting.

(7.) A creditor shall not vote in respect of any unliquidated or contingent debt or any debt the value of which is not ascertained.

(8.) For the purpose of voting, a secured creditor shall, unless he surrenders his security, state in his proof the particulars of his security, the date when it was given, and the value at which he assesses it, and shall be entitled to vote only in respect of the balance (if any) due to him after deducting the value of his security. If he votes in respect of his whole debt he shall be deemed to have surrendered his security, unless the Court on application is satisfied that the omission to value the security has arisen from inadvertence.

(9.) A creditor shall not vote in respect of any debt on or secured by a current bill of exchange or promissory note held by him, unless he is willing to treat the liability to him thereon of every person who is liable thereon antecedently to the company, and against whom a receiving order in insolvency has not been made, as a security in his hands, and to estimate the value thereof, and for the purposes of voting but not for the purposes of dividend to deduct it from his proof.

(10.) It shall be competent to the Official Receiver or to the liquidator, within twenty-eight days after a proof estimating the value of a security as aforesaid had been made use of in voting at any meeting, to require the creditor to give up the security for the benefit of the creditors generally on payment of the value so estimated, with an addition thereto of twenty per centum. Provided, that where a creditor has put a value on such security he may, at any time before he has been required to give up such security as aforesaid, correct such valuation by a new proof, and deduct such new value from his debt, but in that case such addition of twenty per centum shall not be made if the liquidator requires the security to be given up.

(11.) The chairman of the meeting shall have power to admit or reject a proof for the purpose of voting, but his decision shall be subject to appeal to the Court. If he is in doubt whether the proof of a creditor should be admitted or rejected, he shall mark the proof as objected to, and shall allow the creditor to vote, subject to the vote being declared invalid in the event of the objection being sustained.

(12.) A creditor or contributory may vote either in person or by proxy.

(13.) Every instrument of proxy shall be in the prescribed form, and shall be issued by the Official Receiver or by the liquidator of the company, and every written part thereof shall be in the handwriting of the person giving the proxy, or of any manager or clerk or other person in his regular employment, or of a commissioner to administer oaths to affidavits.

(14.) General and special forms of proxy shall be sent to the creditors and contributories with the notice summoning the meeting, and neither the name nor description of the Official Receiver or of any other person shall be printed or inserted in the body of any instrument of proxy before it is so sent.

(15.) A creditor or a contributory may give a general proxy to his manager or clerk, or any other person in his regular employment. In such case the instrument of proxy shall state the relation in which the person to act thereunder stands to the creditor or contributory.

(16.) A creditor or a contributory may give a special proxy to any person to vote at any specified meeting, or adjournment thereof—

(a.) For or against the appointment or continuance in office of any specified person as liquidator or member of the committee of inspection, and

(b.) On all questions relating to any matter other than those above referred to and arising at any specified meeting or adjournment thereof.

(17.) A proxy shall not be used unless it is deposited with the Official Receiver before the meeting at which it is to be used.

(18.) Where it appears to the satisfaction of the Court that any solicitation has been used by or on behalf of a liquidator in obtaining proxies or in procuring the appointment of liquidator, except by the direction of a meeting of creditors or contributories, the Court shall have power, if it think fit, to order that no remuneration shall be allowed to the person by whom or on whose behalf such solicitation may have been exercised notwithstanding any resolution of the committee of inspection or of the creditors or contributories to the contrary.

(19.) A creditor or contributory may appoint the Official Receiver to act in manner prescribed as his general or special proxy, (20.) The chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.

(21.) A meeting shall not be competent to act for any purpose except the election of a chairman, the proving of debts, and the adjournment of the meeting, unless there are present or represented thereat at least three creditors or contributories, or all the creditors or contributories if their number does not exceed three.

(22.) If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum of creditors or contributories is not present or represented, the meeting shall be adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and place, or to such other day as the chairman may appoint, not being less than seven or more than twenty-one days.

(23.) The chairman of the meeting shall cause minutes of the proceedings at the meeting to be drawn up and fairly entered in a book kept for that purpose, and the minutes shall be signed by him or by the chairman of the next ensuing meeting.

(24.) No person acting either under a general or a special proxy shall vote in favour of any resolution which would directly or indirectly place himself, his partner or employer, in a position to receive any remuneration out of the estate of the company otherwise than as a creditor rateably with the other creditors of the company: Provided that where any person holds special proxies to vote for an application to the Court in favour of the appointment of himself as liquidator he may use the said proxies and vote accordingly.
